KEY INITIATIVES

The company expects to add further products to its portfolio during the second half of the calendar year and will expand its offering of pay-in and pay-out options for existing and new merchants. In particular, SQID plans to offer a cost-efficient multi-currency settlement product over direct debit and card schemes.

SQID has also been able to provide alternate payment options for entities affected by the recent events at Wirecard.

On behalf of the board of directors.
